You may be eligible for an abatement of your local motor vehicle excise if you canceled this registration because you also:

- . moved out of Massachusetts
- . reported the vehicle was stolen, or
- . no longer own the vehicle

You are not entitled to an abatement by just canceling this registration.

For your local assessors' office to process your abatement application, you must provide documentation of these and any other actions required by state law. If you have any questions, please contact your local assessor.
